RE: U-4 amendment for FA Gene Thaning
(Client's claim denied.)

FEB 12 P 8:28

The National Association of Securities Dealers requires that we submit an amendment to the CRD when a Financial Advisor is a named respondent / defendant in an investment related, consumer initiated written complaint; or whenever a Financial Advisor is the subject of investment related, consumer initiated written complaint that alleges the Financial Advisor is involved in one or more sales practice violations, with a claim for compensatory damages of $5,000 or more. If there is no damage amount alleged, the complaint must be reported unless the firm has made a good faith determination that the damages from the alleged conduct would be less than $5,000.

The U4 Amendment must be filed regardless of whether the complaint has any merit; the filing requirement is activated simply by the allegation.

- Please have the F.A. sign as the APPLICANT and enter the date on the last page where the signature lines are indicated.
- The Branch Manager must print and sign their name as the APPROPRIATE SIGNATORY on the same page and enter the date as well.
- The F.A. may provide a brief statement regarding the allegations. I ask that you type your statement and forward it to me along with the signed U4 Amendment. I will input the information on your U4 Amendment before it is transmitted to the NASD. Please be advised that your comment may be publicly disseminated and we therefore urge you to use discretion.

Please return the U4 Amendment with original signatures to my attention at the address below within 3 days of receipt. It is essential that I receive the original signed copy.

On January 18, 2000 the NASD adopted a new rule (Rule 3080) which requires member firms to provide its registered persons with the attached disclosure whenever the registered persons submit a completed Form U-4 or amendment thereto.

NASD Rule 3080. Disclosure to Associated Persons When Signing Form U-4. A member shall provide an associated person with the following written statement whenever the associated person is asked to sign a new or amended Form U-4.

The Form U-4 contains a predispute arbitration clause. It is in item 5 on page 4 of the Form U-4. You should read that clause now. Before signing the Form U-4, you should understand the following:

(1) You are agreeing to arbitrate any dispute, claim or controversy that may arise between you and your firm, or a customer, or any other person, that is required to be arbitrated under the rules of the self-regulatory organizations with which you are registering. This means you are giving up the right to sue a member, customer, or another associated person in court, including the right to a trial by jury, except as provided by the rules of the arbitration forum in which a claim is filed.

(2) A claim alleging employment discrimination, including a sexual harassment claim, in violation of a statute is not required to be arbitrated under NASD rules. Such a claim may be arbitrated at the NASD only if the parties have agreed to arbitrate it, either before or after the dispute arose. The rules of other arbitration forums may be different.

(3) Arbitration awards are generally final and binding; a party's ability to have a court reverse or modify an arbitration award is very limited.

(4) The ability of the parties to obtain documents, witness statements and other discovery is generally more limited in arbitration than in court proceedings.

(5) The arbitrators do not have to explain the reason(s) for their award.

(6) The panel of arbitrators may include arbitrators who were or are affiliated with the securities industry, or public arbitrators, as provided by the rules of the arbitration forum in which a claim is filed.

(7) The rules of some arbitration forums may impose time limits for bringing a claim in arbitration. In some cases, a claim that is ineligible for arbitration may be brought in court.
